Smoke Luster Glass, Antique Brass

Contract Suitable As Is

The Gustavo grandly reimagines the traditional brass chandelier shape in a new material—glass. A sleek antique brass pipe presents an all-glass construction, hand-blown by glassmakers who captured the artistry of vintage Italian Murano glass. A smokey luster hue finish gives it a moody quality that is further enhanced by its 10-light setup. This balance between classic style and modern design allows the Gustavo chandelier to function in various settings. Additional pipe available (PIPE-203). Damp rated, though limited outdoor conditions may affect finish. Damp-rated, although limited covered outdoor areas may affect finish.
