FEATURES:

The Electress Pendant is so mid-century modern it can't help but flood a space with nostalgia when the light is switched on. Though it seems it was born in the age of The Jetsons, it is a brand-new design envisioned by our talented team. The frosted-glass shade is embraced by an hourglass-shaped frame and neat finial. These and the ring that gives the shade a flying saucer-like feel have been treated to an oil-rubbed bronze finish.
