

Wall Lights

Wall lights installed in hallways or living areas should be used to spread out the light evenly throughout an area. Spacing should be at least 8 feet apart. Alternatively, these lights can be used to anchor either side of furniture or other décor in a space.