

The Sydney Collection

Make the most of your outdoor space with this Sydney 4-piece conversation set from Hanover. This mid-century modern inspired set includes a sofa, two armchairs, and a coffee table. The entire collection is constructed using sturdy, aluminum frames, and the seating is additionally bolstered with long-lasting, hand-woven faux wicker made of PVC resin. The retro chic style extends to the clean sloped lines and tapered legs of the sofa and two scooped armchairs. The minimalist style still means maximum comfort courtesy of the soft to the touch, quick-drying cushions and pillows. The coffee table features an aluminum slat tabletop, adorned with a faux wood finish. Made with all-weather materials, you'll enjoy timeless style from the Sydney collection for years to come.
